James Orenstein, Magistrate Judge:

At a conference on October 11, 2017, I made certain discovery rulings as to which the parties may seek review. See Fed. R. Civ. P. 72(a). Because the exigencies of this case make it impractical to allow the parties the full 14 days to file objections that would normally be available, I direct any party seeking review of this or any other ruling I make in this case to file objections no later than two business days after the ruling at issue unless otherwise ordered. See, e.g., Hispanic Counseling Ctr., Inc. v. Inc. Vill. of Hempstead, 237 F. Supp. 2d 284, 290 (E.D.N.Y. 2002). Responses to such objections shall be due two business days after the objections are filed unless otherwise ordered.

SO ORDERED.
